Sandler Center for the Performing Arts Foundation to Unveil Permanent Glass Sculptures by Renowned Japanese Artist

The Sandler Center for the Performing Arts is set to become even more beautiful with the unveiling of the newest public art additions in the City of Virginia Beach on Thursday, April 16 at 6 p.m. Three stunning glass sculptures by internationally renowned Japanese artist, Toshio Iezumi will permanently take their place in the lobby of the Sandler Center for the citizens and visitors of Virginia Beach to enjoy, through a generous gift from the Wachovia Foundation.

Join us as we honor Toshio Iezumi and his mastery of this complicated media in the lobby of the Sandler Center on April 16 as part of Art of Glass 2, the regional celebration of the world's best glass art and artists. Captivated by the beauty and mystery of glass, Iezumi's work explores the visual potential of glass in an attempt to create flawless perfection.
