Sandler Center for the Performing Arts Honored with Four Coveted Design Awards

The Hampton Roads Association for Commercial Real Estate (HRACRE)'s Excellence in Development Design program recognizes outstanding projects throughout the community, and this year the Sandler Center shone brighter than most. The Sandler Center for the Performing Arts took home three awards from HRACRE, including the Best Interior Project Award, Best Recreation/Entertainment/Hospitality Project Award, and the Juror's Award. In addition to this high praise, the Virginia Beach Planning Commission also recently presented one of its well-regarded Design Awards to the Sandler Center. The Commission awarded the building with the Honor Award for Public Facility Design, the top award in its class.

More and more, the Sandler Center is being acknowledged for its stellar ambiance and unmatched cultural experience. With its soaring glass façade revealing the magnificent lobby, grand staircase, and glittering chandelier, Sandler Center beckons patrons to sample the spectacular offerings that grace the city's newest stage. The Sandler Center has added vitality and life to the Virginia Beach Town Center, provided a breathtaking hub for arts and culture, and has indeed become a shining landmark of the Virginia Beach community.
